WEDNESDAYS AT WOODSTOCK

Each week, you and your family can participate in classes, worship opportunities, and other activities designed to help you grow in your faith!

Check out what we have going on at fbcw.org/events.

Did you know?

Wednesday night dinners are back! Try our new homestyle options (limited availability) and register today at fbcw.org/events.

1ST TIME HERE?

We are so glad you chose to worship at Woodstock today! Want to find ways to get connected? Text “welcome” to 678.831.6489 or come by an information desk in the lobby to learn more!

ESL WORKSHOP

Do you have a passion for international ministry? We invite you August 26-27 to learn about different cultures while teaching conversational English and sharing about the Creator of languages. Participants who complete both sessions of training will receive certification by the North American Mission Board! Register today at fbcw.org/events.

MEALS FOR WOODSTOCK - 2 YEAR CELEBRATION

During the pandemic, Chef Michael Bologna at Vincenzo’s Italian restaurant assembled a group of churches to feed families experiencing food insecurities in our area. This Tuesday, August 16, marks two years that Meals for Woodstock has been offering free, hot meals twice a month to anyone who drives up. For more information on how you can be involved, email laynie.jones@fbcw.net or call 678.494.2817.

THE GATHERING

Hey, ladies! We have another Gathering coming up September 11 in the Chapel! We hope you will make plans to join us as we dig into God’s word and have a time of intentional fellowship with the women in our community! Tell your mom, sister, co-worker, cousin, friend, and neighbor! Check out more details at fbcw.org/events.
